

BRIDE'S CHECKLIST

Six Months to Nine Months Before Your Wedding:

- Contact Bonnie Smith first in the Business Office (771-4408) to get your date on the church calendar.
- Contact the minister (771-4408) who will be conducting your wedding.
- Call the wedding guild coordinator.
- Call Shandon's music coordinator to ask him to put the date of your wedding on the calendar and to discuss the music for your wedding. All music selections must be approved. Your wedding is a worship service and the church requires the music be appropriate for a worship service.
- Call the flower coordinator if you want to leave your flowers in the sanctuary for the following Sunday.

Three Months Before Your Wedding:

- Start your counseling with the minister if you have not done so.
- Check back with Shandon's wedding guild coordinator if you have not heard from the ladies who will be directing your wedding.
- Set up an appointment to meet with the wedding directors who will be directing your wedding.
- Make an appointment with the Shandon's music coordinator to discuss your music choices if you have not done so.
- Make your decisions about the use of candles and soloist (vocal and/or instrumental) and let your director, the music coordinator and business administrator know if you have decided to use any of these so that the appropriate fees may be calculated.
- Check back with Shandon's flower coordinator if you had not made a decision earlier about leaving the flowers and you wish to do so.
- Mail your Wedding Information Form to the church office, 607 Woodrow St., Columbia, SC 29205

One Month Before Your Wedding:

- Check again with in the church office (771-4408) to be sure:
 1. The Wedding Information Form has been received.
 2. That all of the information for your programs has been received if the church is providing them.
 3. That the correct wording for the bulletin has been received if you are leaving your flowers in the church.
- Check back with one of your wedding directors to make sure all of the questions were answered when you met with them and advise her of any changes you have made.
- Check with Shandon's business office to be sure all payments have been received.

Your Wedding Day:

Have a WONDERFUL day knowing everything has been taken care of!!
